Re-design the interior of your house's kitchen

Re-design the interior of Vicolo Cafe, bar section

Design exterior furniture for Valiasr street

Spicy Project

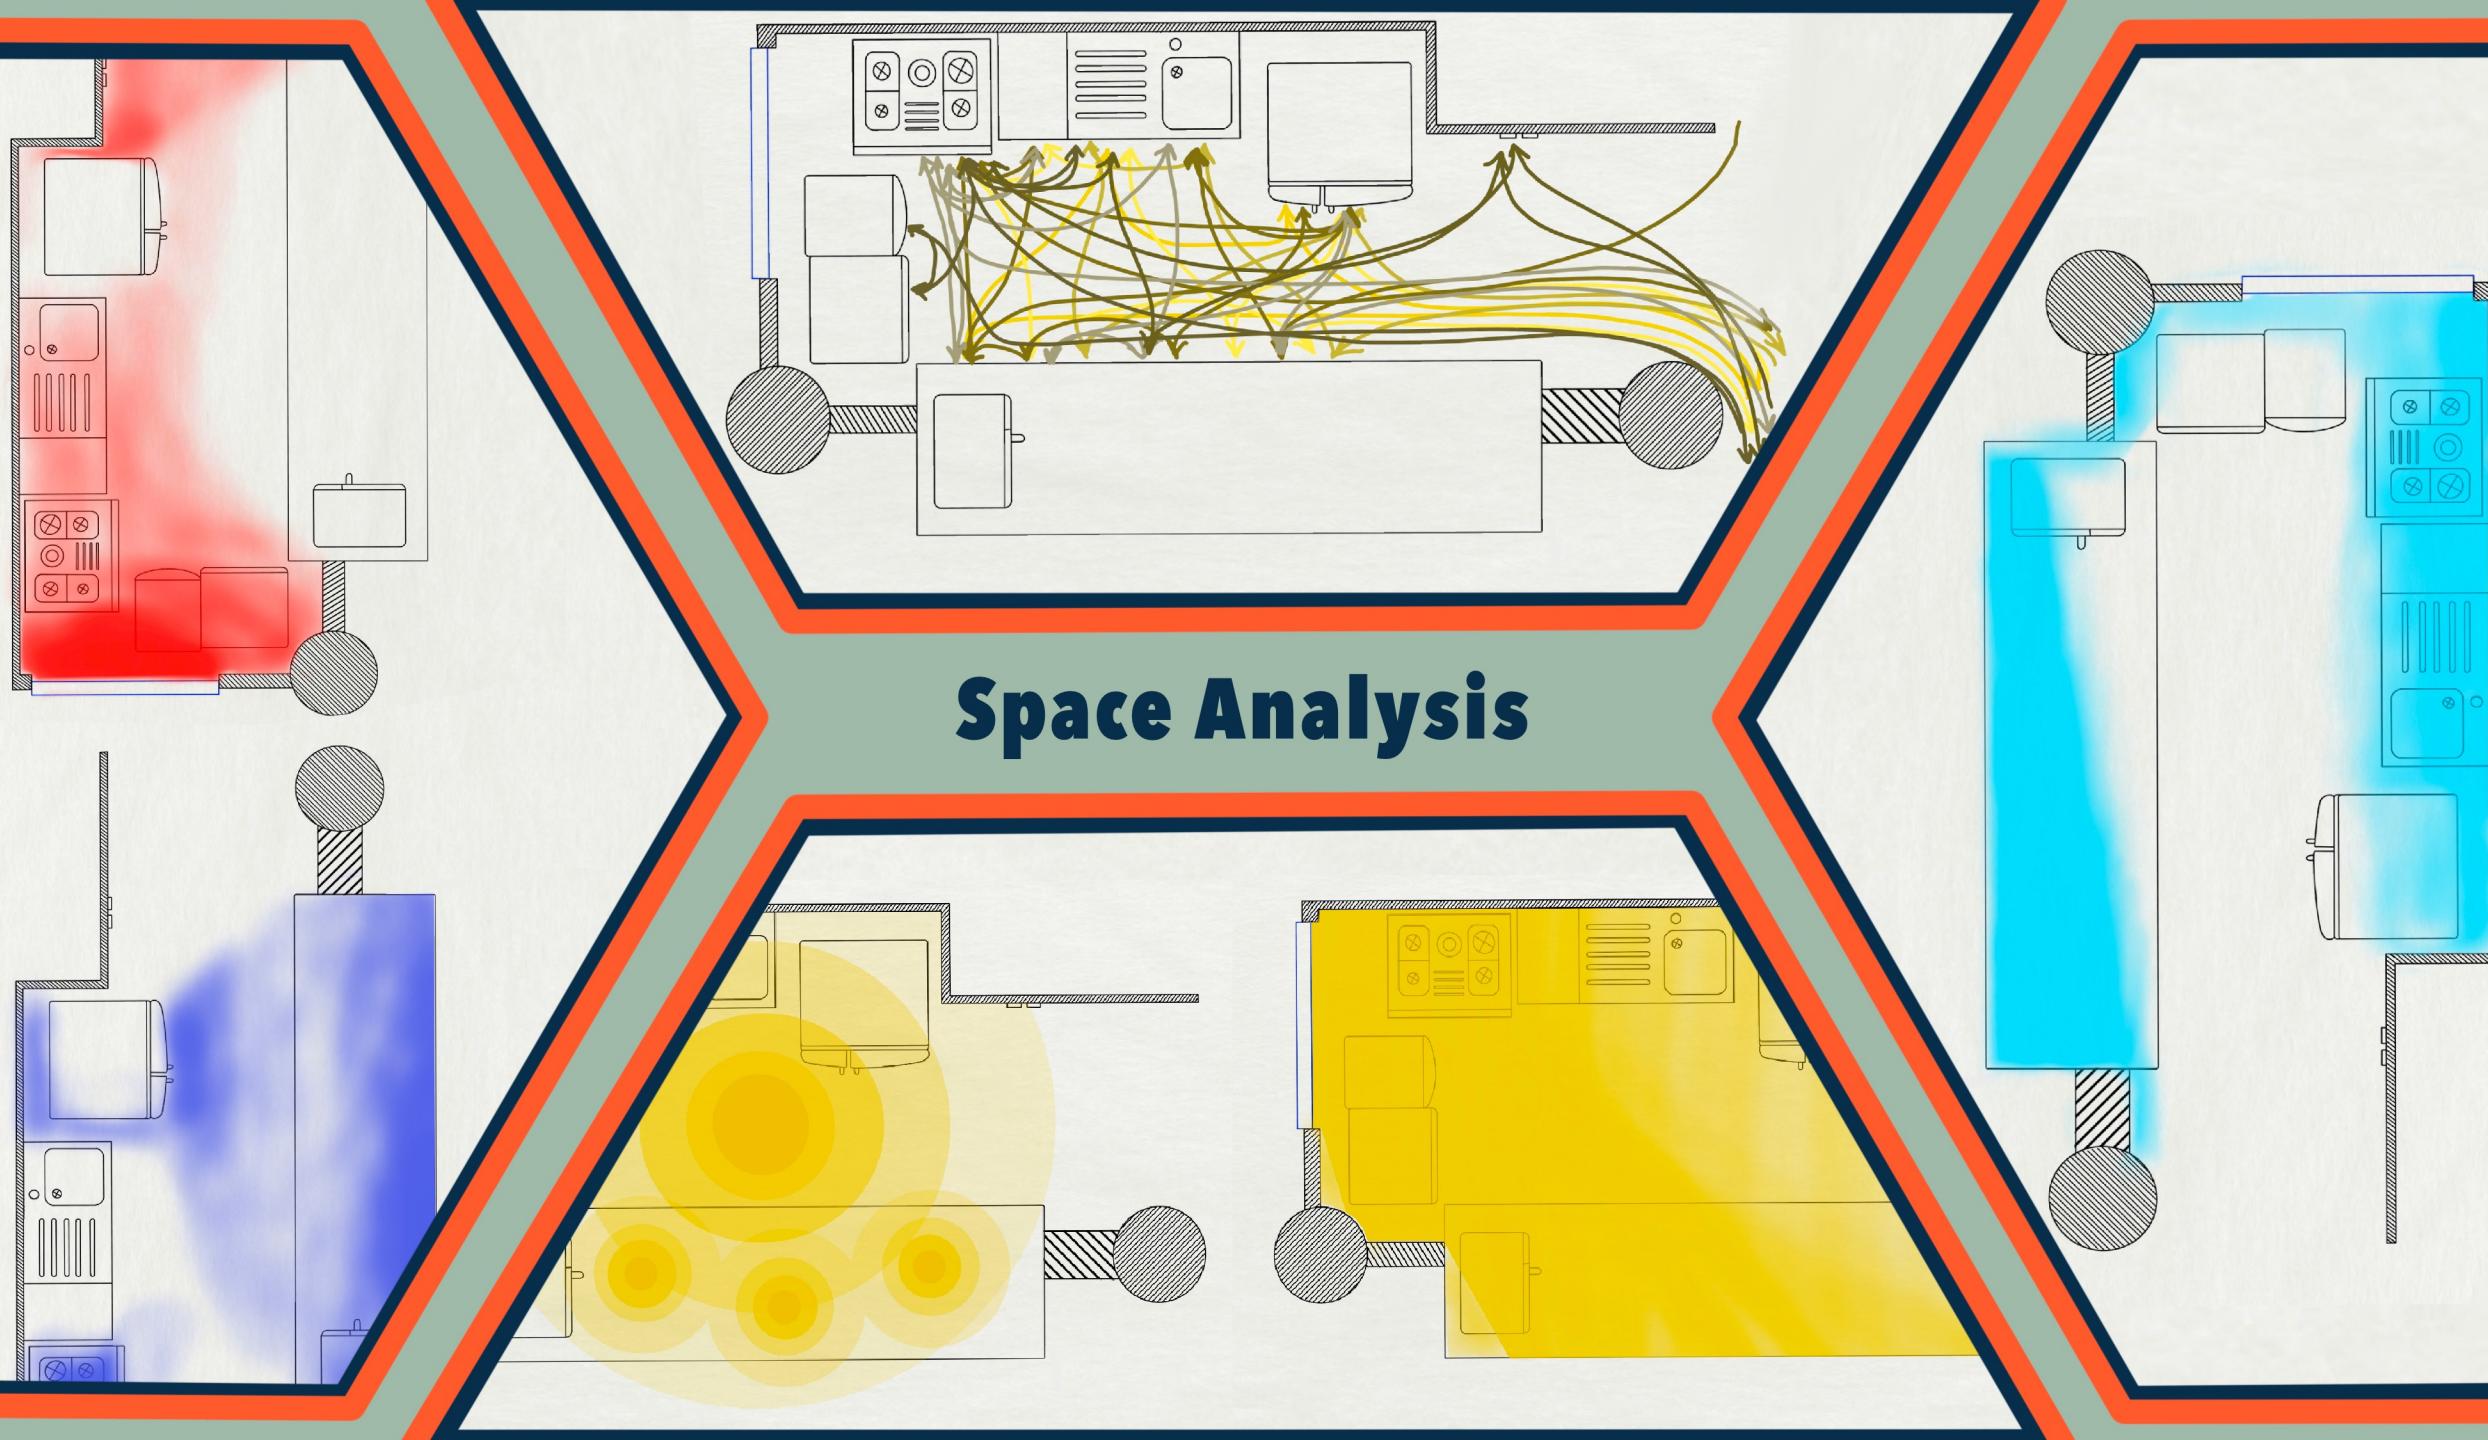

(Redesign a kitchen inspired by Hindu culture)

In this interior furniture design project, I chose the kitchen of my house directed in the certain of Tehran. The goal is to redesign the interior inspired by Hindu culture.

The kitchen is known as the heart of every house where Indians love to cooperate as a family.

Space Analysis

Ideas in Detail

Light bulb in the shape of snake

Snake is a symbol of Intercession and respect. Putting it in the highest is a sign of the sublime.

Faucet inspired by fountain

Indians believe in the magic of minerals in natural water then the fountain is inspirational.

An abstraction of the Om Symbol

Om is one of the most important spiritual symbols.
It refers to Self within.

Petals arrangement vivid in cabinet doors

This represents the geometry in nature which demonstrates ordination.

Folding Chair

Getting together is a precious value in every Indian family.

How about just sitting and making dialogs?

Vases in petals shape

Planting is a form of respecting nature.

Living by it is a precious value for Indians.

Come Italia

Redesign the barista work station in Vicolو Cafe

Vicolо Cafe is located in the north of Tehran. It is on the rooftop of Modern Elahie shopping center.

The employers hope that the interior of this cafe would have been designed like Italian streets.

I chose the bar section to be redesigned based on the ergonomy of the working section.

Work-section of Hot Bar

By studying the ergonomic postures and spaces, I fixed the dimensions.

Within Garden

Design an exterior furniture for Valiasr Street

Valiasr avenue is the longest well-known route in Tehran. Its history, commercial buildings, and magnificent trees make it brilliant.

Many people pass through this avenue daily, so they go for a place to rest and entertain.

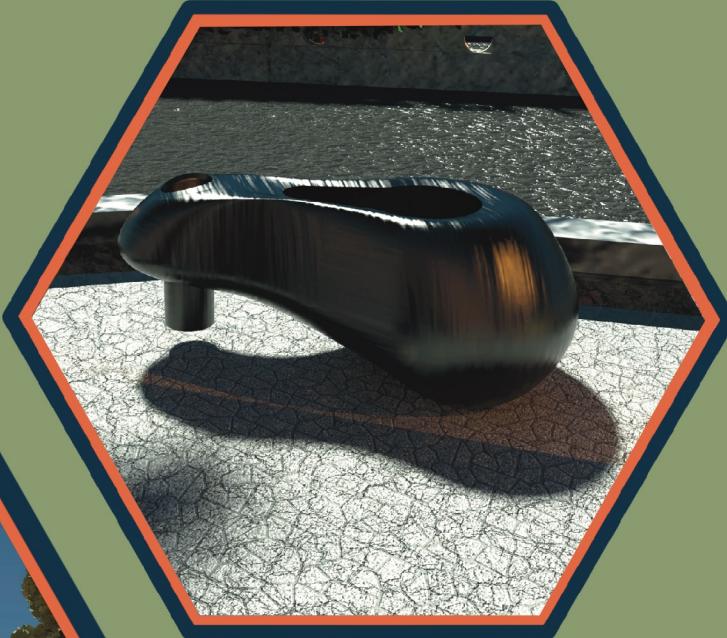

Field Observation

Priority:

- . Suitable seat
- . Suitable garbage can
- . Place for cats

Design that Suited Observation

- Seat based on islamic geometry
- Garbage can looks like bundle
- Cats' sweet home
- Place for bikers to rest
